

Measuring for a Catalina Hatch

We need to confirm the arch of your new Catalina hatch. You can do this by taping a piece of string taugt from one edge of the hatch lip to the other edge. Then in the center, measure from the string up to the top of the hatch lip. See A below.

Measure the distance between the out side edge of the hatch lip on the port to the outside edge on the starboard. See B below.

